

GAS STORAGE

Ecomembrane is a global leader in the design and manufacture of innovative biogas storage systems utilizing proprietary PVC and double membranes.

With an outstanding track record spanning over 20 years, we help customers around the globe to implement clean energy and emission reduction solutions, reducing costs and maximizing financial and environmental benefits.

The worlds largest 16.000 m3 gas holder is located in Turkey, which was manufactured by Ecomembrane S.r.l.. With more than 400 holders and covers installed around the world, Ecomembrane has built a reputation for delivering superior performance based on leading technology and know how.

Through our engineering resources and manufacturing facilities in Europe and the United States, Ecomembrane is positioned to serve customers around the world.

convex is the sole agent of Ecomembrane S.r.l. in Turkey.